
55004-A: Installing and Configuring System Center 2012 Operations Manager

This five-day instructor-led course provides participants with the knowledge and skills to install and configure System Center 2012 Operations Manager. In addition to this class will prepare the participant for managing their 2012 Operations Manager infrastructure.

Prerequisites

Participants who wish to take up this course should meet the following prerequisites:

- Familiarity with PC hardware and devices
- Experience supporting Windows-based systems
- Basic experience authoring and editing batch and script files
- Experience reviewing Windows application and service logs
- Experience configuring or supporting distributed application environments
- Working knowledge of Windows Server 2008 operating system and network configuration
- Working Knowledge of Active Directory

Audience

This course is intended for IT professionals with basic Windows Server, Active Directory and network configuration and management experience.

Topics

- Overview of System Center 2012 Operations Manager

- Installing the 2012 Operations Manager Infrastructure
- Navigating Operations Manager
- Global Management Group Settings and Notifications
- Installing and Configuring Agents
- Management Packs
- Operations Manager Monitoring
- Monitoring without Agents
- Operations Manager Reporting
- Operations Manager Audit Collection Services
- Synthetic Transactions
- Distributed Applications
- Monitoring Complex Environments
- Backup and Disaster Recovery