
Oracle Hyperion Planning 11.1.2 Create & Manage Applications Ed 5

This Oracle Hyperion Planning 11.1.2: Create & Manage Applications - Self-Study Course will teach you how to create and administer applications with Planning. Engage in hands-on, practical exercises to solidify your learning.

Objectives

- Create and deploy Planning applications
- Manage metadata and data
- Set up security for users, groups, and members
- Create and customize forms, menus, and task lists
- Migrate application artifacts
- Verify application setup
- Set up and test business rules
- Set up and manage the approval process

Topics

- Introduction to Planning for Interactive Users
- Introduction to Planning
- Navigating Planning
- Introduction to Applications and Dimensions
- Creating Planning Applications
- Managing Dimensions
- Setting Up Aliases, Currencies, Years, and Periods
- Setting Up Scenarios and Versions
- Setting Up the Entity and Account Dimensions
- Loading Metadata
- Creating User-Defined Elements
- Setting Up Exchange Rates
- Loading and Calculating Data
- Setting Up Planning Security
- Creating Forms
- Enhancing Forms
- Entering Data in Planning
- Annotating and Analyzing Data
- Managing Business Rules - Part 1
- Managing Business Rules - Part 2
- Managing Business Rules Practices

- Setting Up the Approval Process
- Managing the Approval Process
- Creating Task Lists